4. Receiving an F in any two courses, either concurrently or in different semesters, will result in immediate dismissal with no probationary period.

5. GPA below 2.0 (excluding incompletes) for any specific grading period will result in immediate dismissal with no probationary period.

6. A student dismissed from the graduate program may file a written petition with the Director of Graduate Studies for readmission. In making a decision regarding readmission, the faculty may consider extenuating circumstances surrounding the unsatisfactory grades and the probability that the student can successfully complete the program with at least the 3.0 GPA required to graduate.

7. If a dismissed student wishes to be considered for readmission in the subsequent semester, a petition must be filed within three working days of receipt of the written dismissal notice.

8. If a previously dismissed student is readmitted, all previously earned grades will remain on the permanent record and will be computed in the overall grade point average.

9. Students will be specifically warned of possible termination from the program by the Director of Graduate Studies and will be advised of needed improvements. Students will be fully informed of all decisions affecting their status in the program, and each has the right to appeal under grievance procedures provided by the Graduate School.

Weather Policy:

When UC West Campus is closed due to inclement weather, the Department of Nutritional Sciences will be closed as well. All classes for students in the Department of Nutritional Sciences will be cancelled with the exception of online classes and the online part of hybrid classes. Online classes and the online part of hybrid classes will continue as usual. For all classes on campus, students should check their course Blackboard announcements for any status updates on course assignments, course postings, test rescheduling etc.

Non-Discrimination Policy:

The University of Cincinnati does not discriminate on the basis of disability, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, age, sexual orientation, veteran status or gender identity and expression in its programs and activities.

The University does not tolerate discrimination, harassment, or retaliation on these bases and takes steps to ensure that students, employees, and third parties are not subject to a hostile environment in University programs or activities.

The University responds promptly and effectively to allegations of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. It promptly conducts investigations and takes appropriate action, including disciplinary action, against individuals found to have violated its policies, as well as provides appropriate remedies to complainants and the campus community. The University takes immediate action to end a hostile environment if one has been created, prevent its recurrence, and remedy the effects of any hostile environment on affected members of the campus community.

UC is committed to the ideal of universal Web accessibility and strives to provide an accessible Web presence that enables all university community members and visitors full access to information provided on its websites. Every effort has been made to make these pages as accessible as possible in accordance with the applicable guidelines.

The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding discrimination, harassment, or retaliation based on disability, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, age, and veteran status: